

Ephraim H. Miller

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE SIXTY-SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
SIXTY-SECOND JUDGE AND TWENTY-FIRST TERM OF COURT.

Germann Fuchmann, Jesse W. Johnson,
Courtier Cressrough,

Plaintiffs.

vs.

DECREE.

Julius Macleprang, Samuel W. Brinkerhoff,
John W. Glazier, Ephraim Johnson, Willard
Churway, Mrs. Frank Farmworth and
Joel T. Johnson.,

Defendants.

This cause coming on regularly to be heard before the Court, at a regular term thereof, holden at Kane, in the County of Kane in the State of Illinois, on the 23rd day of April A.D. 1900, upon the verified amended complaint of the plaintiffs filed herein and the verified answer thereto of the defendants, and a stipulation in writing having been heretofore entered into and signed by the attorneys for the respective parties and filed herein, where in the rights of all the parties to this action were duly defined set out and agreed upon, and said stipulation also provided that a decree may be entered in accordance with the terms and provisions of said stipulation; and the plaintiff, Germann Fuchmann and the defendant, Julius Macleprang, having in writing agreed to submit their differences as to the respective rights of each party in and to the waters in controversy to certain arbitrators in said agreement named, which said agreement is in writing, duly signed by said parties and on file herein; and said arbitrators having taken the oath of office as required by law and having heard the proofs in the cause and being fully advised having filed herein their award in writing; and said stipulation so made and filed herein as aforesaid and said award of said arbitrators made and filed herein as aforesaid determine all the rights of the respective parties to this damnum action, and said parties by